

The image is a night photograph of a campsite by a body of water. In the foreground, there are two horizontal borders of glowing yellow star-shaped lights. The background shows a dark sky with several large, vibrant fireworks exploding in blue, orange, and white. Below the fireworks, a line of trees separates the campsite from the water. The campsite itself is visible with several white vans and tents, some of which are illuminated by warm lights. The water in the foreground reflects the lights from the campsite and the fireworks. The text 'Campsite Čikat' and 'ADVENT 2018' is overlaid in the upper left quadrant of the image.
